Sermon: We Value Future Generations

Speaker: Meaghan McBrayer
& Kristin Meier

WHAT DO I NEED TO KNOW?

Deuteronomy 6:4-9

An interview between our Executive Pastor, Kristin Meier, and NextGen Pastor, Meaghan McBrayer, about the importance of investing in tomorrow's church today.

MEMORY VERSE

These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

Deuteronomy 6:6-7

WHAT DO I NEED TO ASK?

- ICEBREAKER: What is the funniest thing you have heard a child say recently?
- Meaghan mentioned that two-thirds of all Christians accept Jesus as their Lord and Savior before the age of 18, making childhood and teen years primary times of faith formation. How does that impact how you think about NextGen ministries?
- Read Deuteronomy 6:4-9. For parents, how can you impress Biblical truth on your children? For parents and those who do not have children, how can you do the same for the next generation outside of your own household?
- How do you see NextGen ministries influencing the church and community today? How do you think that will impact future generations?
- What hopes do you have for the future generations in our church decades from today? What next step can you take now to move us in that direction?
- How can you personally help the NextGen ministries to accomplish their mission to help children, teens, and college students take their next step closer to Jesus?
